Should your work be	Hung                  Laid Flat                  or 3 dimensional
Value for insurance *	£
	*The Guild Insurance Policy includes an excess of £50. So for example, for a piece worth £100, the maximum insurance payout would be £50. For pieces under £50, there would be no insurance payout. Insurance value should be calculated by the cost of materials plus 20% ! If a frame is to be claimed for a receipt for the frame will be necessary. If you regularly sell work and can prove that then the insurance value can be calculated by the cost of materials plus the cost of the hours taken to produce the work. You must not include any profit you may have added to the value when selling your work.

If you require insurance cover from the Guild for your entry, the information in red, must be forwarded to Ann Beer by 20th May 2017, either by email to ann@jabeer.plus.com or by post to Meadow View, Knights Lane, Ball Hill, Newbury, Berkshire, RG20 0NW

Please bring your work on the day or get someone to bring it for you. If you have a problem with this please contact ann@jabeer.plus.com
